

Educational Resources for Beginners

In order to provide scholarly instruction to learners, these organizations have designed curricula with popular education principles and experiential learning. These scholarly lessons are not opinion or social commentary driven and will help provide the foundational understanding that new learners need to begin and maintain their antiracist journey.

Brownicity's What LIES Between Us - Fostering First Steps Toward Racial Healing

This course offers learners an analytical framework for examining race and racism in the United States by providing a historical, political and social context for understanding race/ism and how it is sustained. The content helps learners build a sound knowledge base and develop a perspective beyond popular discourse and uninformed opinions.

California Newsreel's RACE -The Power of an Illusion The full three-part series investigates race in society, science and history.

Othering & Belonging Education - Curriculum Resources

The Othering & Belonging Institute among other things, publishes curricula that are resources for creating spaces for people concerned with social justice to gain new analysis and strategies for engaging with the world.

The People's Institute for Survival & Beyond's Undoing Racism

The People's Institute for Survival and Beyond (PISAB) focuses on understanding what racism is, where it comes from, how it functions, why it persists and how it can be undone. Their workshops use a systemic approach that emphasizes learning from history, developing leadership, maintaining accountability to communities, creating networks, undoing internalized racial oppression and understanding the role of organizational gate keeping as a mechanism for perpetuating racism.

Racial Equity Tools

"Racial Equity Tools is designed to support individuals and groups working to achieve racial equity. This site offers tools, research, tips, curricula and ideas for people who want to increase their own understanding and to help those working toward justice at every level – in systems, organizations, communities and the culture at large."

REI - Race Equity Institute - Workshops

REI focuses on developing the capacity of learners to better understand racism in its institutional and structural forms by presenting a historical, cultural, and structural analysis of racism.